The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Senate bill to establish a United Sintes land cours and provide for the settle-ment of private land chains in New Mex-ice, Wroming, Arisona, Utah, Nevadu and Colorado, such claims being by virtue of Spanish or Mexican rights. The pill was discussed until 3 o'clock, when the shipping every member was present in his seat, a bills were in order as unfinished business: remarkable circumstance. The shipping bills were taken up, and Gib-son addressed the Scuate.

The shipping toils were taken up, and Gibson addressed the Senate.

He argued against the proposed subsidies for ships, but in favor of moderate postal subsidies. He appealed to the chairman of the commistee on commerce (Frige) to relax the rigidity of its policy and allow things to be purchased abroad and sailed under the American flag; to take off the tariff dates from materials, supplies and confits that go into the construction and sailing of ships, and to accept as a compromise the policy of giving postal subsisting to American built vessels. It was simply impossible under the existing tariff and navigation laws to baild up the foreign carrying trade of the United States.

Vest offered as a substitute for the bill as to American merchant matrine, by a provision for fore stins to be used only in the foreign carrying trade of the United States.

Vision for froe suits to be used only in the foreign carrying trade of the United States. The bills went over without action, after an unsuccessful effort by Frye to have an agreement to vote upon them to morrow. After executive session the Senate adjourned.

When the work of rescuing the survivors ended, which comnence I almost instantly, only two persons the matter worse, fire broke out on the wrecked vessel, and huge columes of flame and smoke impeded the searchers for the dead and dying. The bursting of the steamer's boilers was the cause of the catastrophe. It was in the Chicago river at the foot of Washington street that the explosion occurred.

that the explosion occurred.

There must have been from twelve to fifteen men kille i, and probably half a dozen additional wounded. These were laborers in the hold. Most of the victims were hicagoans, stevedores who were unload-ing the vessel. Only three of the Tioga's was due to a lack of water in the boilers, and the second engineer, who is known to have produced just such an explosion, wrecking only one compartment of the
